GOVERNOR DIX TAKES HAND

NEW YORK EXECUTIVE MAKES SUGGESTION TO ENCOURAGE HORSE BREEDING.

Requests Opinion from State Commissioner of Agri culture as to Best Method to Be Followed and Racing Men Feel Encouraged.

Albany, N. Y., February 17.—The racing interests were cheered yesterday by a letter which Governor Dix sent to State Commissioner of Agriculture Calvin J. Huson suggesting a state appropriation to encourage horse breeding in this state. The racing men have all along contended that the abolition of the race tracks has discouraged the breeding of high-grade looses.

the race tracks has discouraged the breeding of high-grade horses.

"I would be glad," writes the Governor to his commissioner, "to have your opinion as to the best method of stimulating the interest and co-operation of the breeders of this state toward the improve-ment of this branch of animal husbandry."

The branch referred to by the Governor is suita-ble mounts for the army, national guard and police departments of the cities and of the state. Racing men contend that the abolition of the sport in New York had a bad effect not only on thoroughbreds but also on blooded horses for other purposes. In view of Governor Dix's expressed desire to re-habilitate the breeds of horses in New York, race track men feel that he is disposed to look favorably upon any attempt to change the racing laws so that better lorses will be produced.

manutate the breeds of horses in New York, race track men feel that he is disposed to look favorably upon any attempt to change the racing laws so that better korses will be produced.

The editorial advocating the repeal of the directors' Habilty law recently published in the Albany Evening Journal, which infinential newspaper is the property of William Barnes, Jr., chairman of the Republican State Committee, bristles with logic and common sense. It appeared under the caption "Be Reasonable," and its text is as follows:

"Unless horse racing is made again possible in this country, and particularly in this state through repeal of an unjust, stupid provision of law which makes any man associated with the management of a racing track liable to prosecution and penalty for a violation of the anti-betting law which may have occurred among thousands of frequenters of a track, without his knowledge, the complete disappearance of the thoroughbred from the United States will become a fact in a very short time.

"In a recent report to the Congress, Major General Mood, calling attention to the lack of suitable horses for the army, said: 'As a result of recent state legislation affecting racing, there has been and still continues to be a very extensive shipment out of the country of the best thoroughbred blood,' and, 'this depletion of the thoroughbred breeding establishments of this country is now assuming the magnitude of a national calamity."

"He quotes from statistics that registration of theroughbred foals has decreased from 4.500, a small enough number, in 1901, to 2,400 in 1911, and adds: 'It is not only now a question of number, but of quality as well, and in both respects there have been serious decrease and deterioration, will be further accelerated if legislative inaction destroys the last hope that the sport of racing, maintained and enjoyed in all countries but this

TO RECALL GLORIES OF THE PAST.

Sentimental Side of Racing to Be Fostered at the Sportsmen's Dinner Tomorrow Night,

New York, February 17.—Cable wires, mails and messengers have been kept busy for the past ten days, getting everything in order for the exhibition in the Sportsmen's Gallery at the Waldorf-Astoria Sunday and Monday and arranging as regards the speakers for the sportsmen's dinner on Monday evening.

The committee has received a cable from Lord North, Wroston, England, giving permission to use his advice to his grandchildren, used last year, again this year:

"I want you to grow up sportsmen—not—mind you, sporting men, for there is a vast difference between a sportsman and a sporting man."

From the editor of the London Field and Bailey's Magazine cables have been received giving their authorization of matter which will be brought up at the dinner, and letters from Alfred E. T. Watson of the Bedminton Magazine, and King Edward VII. as a sportsman, and H. de H. Leathes of Foxhound and Herse Breeding, sanctioning the work done. Theodore Roosevelt has also been consulted by H. W. Smith, the originator of the dinner, so that the work in hand might have the backing of one who stands foremost as a sportsman in America.

Breeders of the thoroughbred, lovers of the trotter and pacer, gentlemen riders and drivers, owners of ponies and draught horses, and those who follow the hounds or the white ball on the polo field, each and all are aiding the committee in every possible way to make the Sportsmen's Gallery at the Waldorf-Astoria and the exhibition at the dinner one unequaled before in the United States and, in fact, in the entire world.

From the Patchen-Wilkes Stock Farm have come the two bronzes presented to them by the Imperial Association of Trotting Horses of St. Petersburg, Russia.

From the Dockey Club are the unrivaled paintings of the Doncaster St. Leger, 1828, by the mighty

T. C. McDOWELL HOPEFUL OF WINNING THE KENTUCKY DERBY OF 1912 WITH THE MANAGER

Lexington, Ky.. February 17.—Thomas C. McDowell took The Manager to the scales at the feed store near the Keatucky Association track on Wednesday last and the three-year-old son of Voter and Bracegirdle, with which the master of Ashland hopes next May to duplicate his success of ten years ago with Allan-a-Dale in the Kentucky Derby, tipped the beam at 1,070 pounds. This is considerably above the average weight of a thoroughbred of The Manager's age, but it is not too much weight for a horse of his-bone and frame. The Manager is a big horse, He is full sixteen hands in height. He is, to express it briefly, in magnificent condition.

height. He is, to express it briefly, in magnificent condition.

There has been, quite naturally, in the haunts of horsemen here this winter much speculation as to whether Worth, the accredited leader of the two-year-olds of 1911, will be able to take The Manager's measure when they meet in the mile and a quarter run for Derby glory at Churchill Downs or whether there will been up some other to beat them both. There has, of course, been no very definite conclusion such as might be terined unanimity of opinion on the question, but there appears to be a leaning here in the direction of Mr. McDowell's colt. The fact that he was not raced so frequently as was Worth and that for the last two months of the 1911 season he did-practically nothing beyond his daily light exercise and went into winter quarters in the best of bodily condition to gain muscle and strength through the cold season is counted as somewhat in The Manager's favor. The reports from Aiken, S. C., where Frank Taylor is winter the Hallenbeck string, are to the effect that Worth has filled out nicely and is in the best of condition. condition.

that Worth has filled out friedly and is in the best of condition.

The seven yearlings that James P. Ross is handling for J. E. Davis, of New York, will be shipped on March 1 to Baltimore, where they are to be trained by Robert Walden. The most promising of the collection is, in the opinion of many of the local trainers, the colt by Star Shoot—Lyndall, for which Mr. Davis paid 8725 at the November sales. The largest and heaviest two-year-old at the Kentucky Association track is the Disguise—Quadruplex colt belonging to J. W. McCracken and in the string of T. C. McDowell. He weighs 1,050 pounds. This fellow was bred by Charles H. Berryman and John McClintock, and they sold him for $1,500 to Mr. McCracken. In a yearling trial he ran a quarter in 22 seconds, and some watches had him one fifth of a second faster than that. The finest filly on the grounds is Volita, by Voter out of the Oaks winner, Chulita. She belongs to Colonel Alex Labold of Cincinnati, and is in Jack Baker's stable.

One of the nine thoroughbreds belonging to Irving H. Wheateroft that died en route to Sydney, Australla, was the English-bred mare, Esteem, the dam of King Broomstick.

SuperIntendent James P. Ross of the Kentucky Association track, had a letter from Racing Secretary W. H. Shelley at Juarez yesterday in which esays that while the uprising of the rebellious Mexicans is quite annoying in its interruption of racing, no serious results are anticipated.

The stallion Maxio, which was recently presented by James B. Haggin, the master of Elmendorf, to Joseph A. Murphy to go into the Missouri Breeding Bureau, was shipped from here to St. Louis Friday.

Senator McCarren, sire of the old campaigner

Bureau, was 'shipped from here to St. Louis Friday.

Senator McCarren, sire of the old campaigner Cooney K., is a pensioner at John Shannon's Hollywood Farm near this city. Senator McCarren is the property of Senator Timothy D. Sullivan of New York, who is well satisfied to pay the bills for the seventeen-year-old son of Bishop and Pearl Set, by Falsetto, and to mate him with a mare or two of his own each year.

Several valuable thoroughbred foals were dropped at farms in this vicinity this week. At the Castleton Stud, James R. Keene's Optime, the dam of Syson-by, has a bay colt by Hippodrome. Ballot's first get was foaled on Wednesday. It is a bay filly out of Pope Joan. Major T. J. Carson's Irvana, the dam of Bensonhurst and Bath Beach, has a brown filly at Dixiana Stud. E. R. Bradley's Sister Carline, a sister to Flocarline, has a bay filly by St. Savin at Idle Hour Farm. J. B. Respess' Purity, dam of J. C. Core, foaled a bay colt by Dick Welles at Thomas Piatt's farm this morning.

John Shannon bought from John E. Madden yesterday the three-year-old filly Flex, by Inflexible—Lisella, and the two-year-old chestnut colt by Banastar—Josephine. They will be shipped to Robert Shannon at Charleston.

Old Hank and Walter B., raced last year by C. E. Patterson, are now in the stable of Dillard Hill, at the Kentucky Association course.
The Kentucky State Racing Commission will be represented at the Sportsmen's dinner at the Waldorf-Astoria, New York, Monday night by Johnson M. Camden, proprietor of the Hartland Stud. John E. Madden will also be present.

And for the first time in history the committee of the Jockey Club has allowed to be taken from the rooms for the exhibition the racing plates of Lexington and Lecompte, worn in their famous match at Metaire course in 1854.

This year, with the feeling that the dinner was for the "light harness brigade," as well as the fleet-limbed runners, the trotting men are not to be outdone.

From Lexington, Ky., comes an oil painting, the property of John E. Madden, of Rysdick's Hambletonian and an autograph letter sent by David Bonner, who saw the old horse and drove him.

Mr. Smith is sending the foreleg and foot of Flora Temple, the first trotter to cross the magic 2:20 line, and Raleigh C. Thomas of Baltimore, whose grandfather, William McDonald, owned the great mare during her racing years, is sending an original oil painting of her just after she broke the world's record as above.

William Du Pout, the hackney breeder of Virginia, for the library, is sending Francis Skinner's American Turf Register, an invaluable set, and George Ford Morris, the artist, is loaning the statuette of Gen. John B. Castleman on his grand prize saddle mare Carolina, a model in the contest for the bronze to be erected to General Castleman by the people of Kentucky in Cherokee Park, Louisville, Ky.

Morton W. Smith of New York, sends one of the few paintings by the great hound artist, Thomas Blinks of England, a pack of hounds breaking cover on a hot trail in full cry.

August Belmont, not to be outshone, is loaning the painting of Lexington, by Troye, and the bronze by Charles Cary Rumsey of Rock Sand, winner of the triple crown in England before importation into this country.

E. Wenrick, a well-known collector, is sending one of the American sketches of the training stable of Richard Ten Broeck in England, showing the leading winners of the day in the paddock.

Andrew Miller is lending a bronze of Adam, son of the mighty Flying Fox. Adam, since the persecution of racing, has been returned to France, but not before he had sired Zeus, Adams Express and other winners on this side.

The illustrations by Lynwood Palmer of "How We Beat the Favorite," by Adam Lindsay Gordon, are coming from the master of the Grafton Hounds, together with an oil palnting by Stull of The Cad, winner of the $10,000 Champion of 1900, owner up, together with the bit which held Prioress, winner of the Cesarewitch of 1857, the property of Richard Ten Broeck, on his first invasion of the English turf.

The committee, on learning that three great thoroughbred trainers of America, Fred Littlefield, who was with Ten Broeck on his English invasion; Jacob Pincus, who trained Iroquois, the American horse that won the Derby for Pierre Lorillard, and John Huggins, who had charge of W. C. Whitney's stable in England when he won the Derby with Volodyovski, leased from Lady Meux, were in the country, decided to ask them to attend the dinner as guests of the Sportemen of America.

LORD DECIES' AMERICAN PURCHASE.

New York, February 17.—The five American two-year-olds purchased by Lord Decies from John E. Madden, of Lexington, are now aboard the Atlantic Transport liner Minneapolis, due to arrive in London early next week. The collection will be trained at Newmarket by Sam Pickering, one of Great Brit-ain's leading trainers. In the lot are three colts and two fillies, Their breeding follows: Dissension have colt, by Planudes—Dissembler, by

On excellent authority it is said that Lord Decies has also purchased from Louis Winans the American-bred three-year-old chestnut colt, Censor, formerly Peacemaker, which arrived at Newmarket recently.

John E. Madden has sold the four-year-old Dorindo and the three-year-olds Lady Monica and Dix to Carl Goldweien, a wealthy Berlin turfman. Mr. Goldweien intends these purchases for racing in Germany. Lady Monica is a daughter of Plaudit and Nahma, the dam of Stokes and Belmere, the former a frequent winner in France.

When asked if it is his intention to curtail his breeding operations, Mr. Madden said: "Certainly not. I have 125 mares eighty-six of which I nominated to the Futurity, and they are going to remain at Hamburg Place. I have faith in the predominance of intelligence of the people of this country and believe that the sport of racing will come back. If not, I can find a fair market abroad, and such as I cannot sell I can afford to keep and race for fun over my own private track."

BOYS IN BLUE AS GUESTS

ARMY AND NAVY DAY OBSERVED AT THE CHARLESTON TRACK.

Catesby Woodford's Garden of Allah Wins the Debutante Stakes, with Her Stablemate, Jessie Porter, Second and Spirella Third.

Charleston, S. C., February 17.—Uncle Sam's boys in blue invaded Palmetto Park this afternoon, not with hostile intent, but as guests of the association. The occasion being Army and Navy day. Great numbers of soldiers from historic Fort Moultrie, and marines and sailors from the Charleston navy yard took advantage of the association's invitation to witness the sport. Col. H. P. Ludlow, commandant at Fort Moultrie, and a number of his aides were among those present. Weather conditions were ideal and contributed in bringing out one of the largest crowds of the meeting. Track conditions were again bad, rain which fell this morning having procluded any possibility of improvement. Several spills again resulted from the poor going, but luckily the results were inconsequential. The betting ring was jammed throughout the afternoon, with speculation keen. The layers reported the best business of the meeting. The success of numerous favorites caused the bookmakers to sustain a tremendous loss.

Seven races, with the Debutante Stakes for two-year-old fillies, over a distance of 3½ furlongs, having a guaranteed value of $1,000 as the feature, furnished fairly interesting sport. The stake race went to Catesby Woodford's Garden of Allah, with her stable companion, Jessie Porter, in second place, and Spirella third. The winner, a trim looking filly by Star Shoot—Frances Hindoo, showed a sterling performance and won in commanding fashion. She closely followed the fleet Spirella during the first quarter, but when fully settled in her stride in the stretch, she drew out to win as her rider pleased. Jessie Porter, after a rough early trip, came with a rush that enabled her to overhaul Spirella near the end.

The handicap at one mile and a sixteenth enabled Font to score his third successive victory this week.

stretch, she drew out to win as her rider pleased. Jessie Porter, after a rough early trip, came with a rush that enabled her to overhaul Spirella near the end.

The handicap at one mile and a sixteenth enabled Font to score his third successive victory this week. He spread-eagled Lawton Wiggins and Lochiel and won cantering.

H. G. Bedwell's Berkeley was easily best of those that made the contest in the fifth race and had plenty of margin over Rye Straw at the end. Merry Lad might have been second in the race, but for falling not far from the finish.

J. W. Hedrick added another to the string of horses he has claimed at Palmetto Park when he took Royal Captive after she was beaten in the fifth race. Royal Captive cost Mr. Hedrick $1.310. Several new bookmakers were in line this afternoon, including William Beverly and Frank Tyler. Both of these gentlemen are located at Summerville and the racing colony that is wintering at this well-known resort is growing larger every day.

M. Kittleman arrived from Detroit this morning. His brother, Frank Kittleman, will be here from New York in a few days.

Jockey G. Carroll, who had the mount on R. F. Carman's Merry Lad. suffered the loss of two teeth as a result of his fall when Merry Lad went down in the homestretch in the fifth race.

L. H. Adair purchased Huskey Lad at private sale from F. H. Milden this morning and the colt ran in his interest in the fourth race.

The three-year-old Prince Chap, owned by P. H. Jones, is down with an attack of pneumonia.

Previous to the races this afternoon several horses were disposed of by auction in the paddock. A list of those sold follows:

Southern Shore, to C. J. Odell, $1,800; Amoret, to M. W. Simmons, $2,100; Robert Bruce, to C. Reed, $225; Rose Oneil, to J. W. Hedrick, $125; Sigo, F. Y. Johnson, $100.

Ernest Heider, the former well-known steeple-chaser fider, who has done little riding of late, was a recent arrival here. He is the owner of that good steeplechaser, Waterway, which went wrong last summer, but is now in such c

LONG SHOTS SCORE AT JUAREZ.

Ben Uncas Only Winning Favorite-Horses Leave Mexican Track for Coeur d'Alene.

El Paso, Tex., February 17.—It was a warm, sunshinny day, but only a fair Saturday crowd was on hand at Juarez today. Six selling races went to make up the card. Only one favorite, Ben Uncas, and he at odds-on at the close, rewarded the public today. Horses at lucrative odds cut a great swath. Tallow Dip came home at 8 to 1 under clever handling by jockey Taplin, who rode an excellent race, reserving his mount in the early part, and sending him along the final eighth.

L. M. Eckert, at the liberal odds of 10 to 1, won the third race at one mile. He was badly outpaced in the early part, but came in the stretch with a rush. Whidden, the favorite, refused to run at all in the early stages and came with a terrific rush when it was too late.

William Torpie, a former bookmaker, but now operating from the ground, was a recent arrival from Los Angeles.

The first shipment of horses from here to Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, left last night by express. In the car were Baironia, Round and Round, Lady Maey, Lomond and Silver Stocking.

T. H. Stevens was a visitor at the track today. He is returning from Lexington, Ky., to Coeur d'Alene, whete he sent twelve twe-year-olds last week.

Jockey R. Hoffman was reinstated today by Pre-week.

Jockey R. Hoffman was reinstated today by Presiding Steward C. F. Price. He had been suspended for a poor ride on Medfring Hannah. The racing of Meddling Hannah has since been poor, so Hoffman gets the benefit of the doubt.

FOXHALL'S ASCOT GOLD CUP MISSING.

New York, February 17.—One of the treasures which the searchers in the ruins of the burned Equitable building have not yet brought to light is the famous Ascot gold cup won by James R. Keene's racer Foxhall in 1882. It has an intrinsic value of $22,500, but its sentimental worth is lucalculable. It is the only Ascot gold cup ever won by an American turfman. It was kept in a case in Mr. Keene's office at the Equitable building, and some concern is expressed by its owner because of the failure of the searchers to locate it.

Pit a-Pat won

That was my special on Thursday, February S, and it was filed with Daily Racing Form. All my clients received telegram to bet the limit on this horse and you can imagine the amount of money that was paid out to them by bookmakers all over elients received telegrams the amount of horse and you can imagine the amount of that was paid out to them by bookmakers all over the country.

Had your name been on my books as a subscriber, you would have received a telegram from me and you would now be spending the bookmakers' money. But it is of no use crying over spilt milk and I am now going to afford you another opportunity to win a good bet. So I now wish to draw your attention to my next special, which starts at

CHARLESTON. Thursday, February 22.

This horse has not shown anything in his recent starts, but is on edge and ready and has worked in record time for the race of next Thursday in which he will start. The odds against this one should be good and you will have yourself to blame if this horse wins and you miss this chance for a clean-up. My advice to you is not to miss this opportunity under any circumstances, as it is in my estimation a rare chance.

My terms for information as to this horse will be Five Dollars, a nominal fee within reach of all, for this time only. Remit Five Dollars by telegraph, express letter or mall immediately to be in time and get results and follow me the rest of the season.

Want Losers

at the racing game—players who have tried even by conservative betting to win, but have failed to make good. I want every race player of standing who is a loser to note what I have to say: Firstly, I can pull you out of the hole. Secondly, I can make you a winner on two or three transactions each week.

I am connected with a gentleman in the east who is connected with one of the largest stables at Charleston. He can tell what will be accomplished on certain days by certain horses. I can call the turn for younine times out of ten, but the information is of such a secret nature that I can deal only with gentlemen of responsibility and character. Those who are in a position to wager at least $25 on a straight flat bet and remit one-half (1-2) of the profits after the horse has won, should address me, if interested in something exclusive. Only business letter head recognized. Write today.

Something Entirely New

I have what I consider the safest and best system of turf speculation ever known. It is such a good system that I refuse to sell it for any amount of money. It is worth a great deal to me, but I realize that I will have to prove this to you. That is just what I am going to do. I will publish all plays in code in this paper and a $10 straight and $10 place bet on each must show $100 won each week. If less, your money will be returned to you, or continued for the following week, just as you wish. My charge will be $20 per week. Free if you don't win $100 a week playing as above. Will figure on average odds. I want 100 clients. Join now. Don't hesitate. If you don't join, just watch my advertisements in this paper. They will state the winnings every day and the statement will be guaranteed correct by Daily Racing Form.

80 to 1 Last Start!

A three-year-old stake horse, a speed marvel, has never been uncovered. We expect long odds on this fellow. He is ready, just waiting for little better track conditions. Will you bet $25 and divide winnings. If so, telegraph your name and address at once. Name of this horse now on file with this publication.

I am $162 (average odds) winner on the Charleston meeting up to and including Friday, February 16 on a $10 bet basis.

My February 7 special, Star O'Ryan, ran second, and the horse that beat us established a new record for the track, and the subscription price was returned to all my clients.

I DO NOT WANT YOUR MONEY if I cannot make you a winner, could I be fairer?

SPECIAL!

My next special will start in a few days, watch or advertisement announcing date.

I expect better odds than we received on Wednesday, 14th—EMILY LEE ... 10-1 WON Thursday, 15th—AVIATOR ... 7-1 WON $5 —— FOR THIS SPECIAL —— $5 and subscription price returned if it does not win. Do not let this get by you, rush your subscription.

TWO RELIABLE MEN-One at WANTED TWO RELIABLE MEN—One at Charleston—one at Juarez to place bets at tracks. Selections men must be recommended for sobriety and honesty by the presiding judge, the starter and the secretary of the association. Do not answer unless you can furnish references unquestionable. Give mail address, also where telegrams will reach you without fail, and state amount of salary expected. Address Lock Box 245, Chicago, Illinois.

A Bullseye Every Time! Absolutely the only horses, besides two scratches, that I wired my clients this month, up to the 14th, were: Feb. 8, Bit of Fortune, 3-1, won; Feb. 13, Crossover, 3-1, won; Feb. 14, Black Mate, 5-2, won. All selections were filed with this paper hours before races. Surely this is a convincing record. Agree to bet $2 to win for me-on each horse I wire you, remitting winnings following morning, and I'll send you 3 or 4 good things weekly. Only Juarez information. The "Montana contingent" there are getting theirs! Comprehend? Wire (prepaid) or mail correct name and address today to Bert Crampton, P. O. Box 751, Anaconda, Montana.
